

Holiday time is upon us with the opening of the Flora Mart Christmas Show!

Christmas may be two months away, but islanders love the season, and the gala opening of the Flora Mart Christmas display has become a much-anticipated tradition. This year, the home and garden store has outdone themselves with a magnificent array of Christmas decorations with color schemes and themes that will inspire many households.

The gala official opening of their Christmas store was also an opportunity to sample the delicious wares of various restaurants such as Crustaceans and Steaks and El Gaucho, noted for their Christmas parties. Peter and Verner of Belgian Chocolates displayed deliciously tempting Christmas chocolates, which come beautifully boxed and make excellent gifts.

The Flora Mart Christmas Show is one of those events where pictures really tell the story, and words cannot do justice to the beauty of their displays! For those that love a beautifully color-coordinated holiday home, a stop by their mega store in Dakota is a must!
